

Services Guide April - June 2026

Guide Contents

Quarterly guide to SilverKite's services and workshop offerings for the community.

- 3 About SilverKite Community Arts®
- 4 Creative Aging: Online Workshops
- 5 Creative Aging: In Person Workshops
- 6 Intergenerational Programming
- 7 Intergenerational Program Models
- 8 Intergenerational Theatre Company
- 9 Professional Development Services
- 10 Arts Engagement Resources
- 11 Testimonials
- 12 Points of Contact

SilverKite
Community Arts

About

SilverKite Community Arts®

SilverKite Community Arts® cultivates empathy and belonging through intergenerational and community-based arts programming. Through high-quality arts engagement opportunities, we strengthen relationships, build community, and promote joy and creativity across all stages of life.

Creative Aging Online Workshops

SilverKite® offers online arts workshops for all ages twice a week in a variety of art forms such as dance, painting, collage, creative writing, and more.

Online workshops are offered four times per month on alternating Mondays at 1:30pm PT and Saturdays at 10:30am PT. Partners can purchase a license to access some or all of our online workshops at $200 per session plus local sales tax.

Online workshop partners receive a personalized webpage which includes registration links and recordings of the workshops. At the end of the month registration numbers for all of the licensed workshops are sent to the partner community.

SilverKite online arts workshops partners have included: Merrill Gardens, King County Library System, Sno-Isle Library System, and Jefferson County Library District.

Check out our online workshops here: www.silverkite.us/online-workshops

Creative Aging In Person Workshops

SilverKite's® Teaching Artists travel to your location and bring the supplies needed for an engaging arts workshop. Our rates range from $300 to $450 plus local sales tax, depending on location and frequency of visits.

This Quarter's Offerings:

- 1 Movement:
Dance for Beginners
- 2 Creative Writing:
Flash Memoir
- 3 Crafting:
Pop-Up Cards
- 4 Mixed Media:
Mandalas
- 5 Watercolor Painting:
Wet-on-Wet Technique

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE:

Mollia Jensen (she/her)

Creative Aging Programs Manager

mollia@silverkite.us

508.812.0431

Intergenerational Theatre Company

Bring SilverKite Community Arts' Intergenerational Theatre Company to Your Community

SilverKite Community Arts'® Intergenerational Theatre Company invites audiences into an intimate, layered storytelling performance shaped by the real-life stories, memories, and perspectives of a multigenerational ensemble.

Blending movement, music, and personal narrative, "A Masterpiece" explores identity, aging, and the connections that shape our lives across generations. Rooted in lived experience and creative exchange, this original production will inspire audience members to reflect, have conversations, and spark intergenerational connection.

What's included:

- 1-hour original performance by a multigenerational cast
- 15-minute audience talk-back with the performers
- Optional interactive theatre workshop with the cast (+$500)

Bring this powerful intergenerational performance to your school, organization, or community. The company will tour from April – May 2026.

Performances cost $600 plus local sales tax.

A limited number of financial scholarships are available. Contact us to learn more about booking or scholarship opportunities.

Visit the Intergenerational Theatre Company \(ITC\) page on our website for additional details.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE:

McKenzie Wilson (she/they)

Intergenerational and Community
Programs Manager

mckenzie@silverkite.us

704.750.9653

Intergenerational Programming

SilverKite® brings over a decade of experience designing and facilitating meaningful intergenerational programs that connect people across ages. We partner with schools and community organizations to create engaging, arts-based experiences that bring people together through shared creativity and art making.

Our programs foster connection, empathy, and belonging by creating opportunities for older and younger participants to learn from one another and build meaningful relationships.

Program options include:

- Short-term school programs: 3–4 creative engagement sessions with integrated planning support
- Long-term school programs: 5+ sessions with expanded planning and deeper collaboration
- After-school: Multi-session series tailored to your students and community
- Community: Custom arts experiences designed for events, residencies, or special initiatives

Every program is thoughtfully tailored to your goals, resources, and the unique individuals in your community. SilverKite collaborates with schools, senior living communities, libraries, arts organizations, and community groups to create meaningful cross-generational experiences—offered during the school day, after school, or in community settings.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE:

McKenzie Wilson (she/they)

Intergenerational and Community Programs Manager

mckenzie@silverkite.us

704.750.9653

www.silverkite.us/intergenerational-programs

Intergenerational School Program Model Descriptions

Arts Workshop Series

Pairs students with older adults to explore the curriculum through creative collaborative activities such as visual art projects, crafting, games, improvisational theatre exercises, and more.

Writing Life Stories: Memory Box Program

Students will interview residents and, from the stories shared, will design Memory Boxes in honor of their partner's life stories to gift to them at the Memory Box Ceremony

Community Service Coalitions

Students and older adults collaborate to identify, design, and implement need-based projects in their community.

Performance Ensembles: (Music, Choir, Theatre and Dance)

Music-making and music history ensembles, choirs, scripted performances and reader's theatre projects, interactive storytelling style events featuring audience participation and group play, and devised storytelling performance ensembles.

Customized Programs

Custom programs, such as language-learning programs, community art murals, museum exhibitions, and more, are developed around the needs and interests of your community.

Professional Development Services

SilverKite® provides consulting and professional development to support your staff and enhance resident engagement. Whether your team members are seasoned professionals or new to their roles, our Founder and CEO, Jennifer (Jen) Kulik, Ph.D., offers innovative strategies to inspire, uplift, and engage your community.

With over 30 years of experience, Jen has designed and led intergenerational arts programs, youth arts initiatives, and arts programs for older adults across retirement communities, schools, theater companies, and social service organizations.

Jen holds a Ph.D. in Theatre for Young Audiences from Arizona State University and an M.Ed. in Curriculum & Instruction from the University of Washington. In 2012, she was awarded a Fulbright Distinguished Award in Teaching fellowship in Singapore, and in 2018, she received the Joseph F. Wall Service Award from Grinnell College. Jen also presents at conferences worldwide, sharing her passion and expertise with global audiences.

CONTACT US TO LEARN MORE:

Jen Kulik Ph.D. (she/her)

Founder and CEO

jen@silverkite.us

360.218.4884

www.silverkite.us

Arts Engagement Resources

ArtKits — $450.00 + tax

SilverKite's ArtKits are fully prepped art toolkits geared towards older adults. The kits include eight workshops with supplies for up to fifteen people to participate in each workshop. They are shipped to you with all supplies included, instructions on how to facilitate the activities, and links to accompanying playlists, videos and powerpoints

SPARK Box[®] — $32.50 + tax

SPARK Boxes[®] contain arts supplies and an instruction booklet specifically designed to help build intergenerational relationships by SPARKing conversation, connection, and fun.

Testimonials

“We LOVE SilverKite®. It is a HUGE relief for staff to not have to choose an art project and purchase the supplies. We love how amazing art projects are delivered straight to our door! I don't know who loves SilverKite more: the residents or the staff. Keep them coming, please!!”

“I enjoyed the opportunity to spend this morning with the folks at SilverKite®. They're doing great things using art as a vehicle for connecting across generations and cultures, promoting social change and bringing people together. Very impressive work.”

“I highly recommend SilverKite's wonderful SPARKBox®. I have seen firsthand the excitement they generate. Eyes light up, big smiles emerge with an eagerness to play and create. Families, especially children, join in and voila! The imagination soars!!”

Points of Contact

Creative Aging Programs:

Mollia Jensen (she/her)

mollia@silverkite.us

508.812.0431

Intergenerational Programs:

Mckenzie Wilson (she/they)

mckenzie@silverkite.us

704.942.5064

Professional Development:

Jen Kulik Ph.D. (she/her)

jen@silverkite.us

360.218.4884