

Intergenerational Program Guide 2025-2026 School Year

www.silverkite.us

Table of Contents

About SilverKite Community Arts® 03

Intergenerational Programs:
How it Works 04

Professional Development for Educators 05

Testimonials 06

Points of Contact 07

www.silverkite.us

About SilverKite Community Arts®

Founded in 2013, SilverKite® serves as the region's intergenerational program specialist, providing program design, professional development, consulting, and facilitation services.

We partner with schools, senior living communities, arts organizations, faith communities, libraries, parks and recreation departments, and other organizations to create an intergenerational experience that matches your budget, community, and interests.

With over 30+ years of award-winning intergenerational program experience and research, SilverKite knows what works and can help create a meaningful, sustainable cross-generational experience for your community or organization.

INTERGENERATIONAL PROGRAMS

How it works

1

Contact SilverKite® to get a project started. We meet with you to learn about your community, goals for the program, ideas, and budget

2

SilverKite designs a custom Intergenerational Program for your school. After you review, we meet with you to make any changes

3

SilverKite matches your school with a senior living community and works with both partners to fine-tune the program design

4

SilverKite works with both partners to schedule the program and help with logistics (transportation, etc)

5

SilverKite facilitates the program and works with program partners to create lasting connections

6

Costs vary depending on the scope of the program and number of students involved. Generally, program pricing begins at $1,500

Professional Development for Educators

SilverKite® provides services to support educators, families, and administrative staff with SEL program development, service learning opportunities, and mentorship support. Whether your team members are seasoned professionals or new to their roles, our Founder and CEO, Jennifer (Jen) Kulik, Ph.D., offers innovative strategies to inspire, uplift, and engage your community.

Jen has a Ph.D. in Theatre for Young Audiences from Arizona State University and a M.Ed in Curriculum & Instruction from the University of Washington. She has dedicated her professional career to arts education, sharing her passion and expertise with global audiences and conferences worldwide.

Prior to founding SilverKite, Jen spent 7 years as a classroom teacher for students in grades 6–12. Jen also served as an adjunct professor for Seattle University’s Matteo Ricci College. She is a Fulbright scholar (Singapore) and has received numerous awards for her teaching and innovation.

Testimonials

“I enjoyed the opportunity to spend this morning with the folks at SilverKite. They’re doing great things using art as a vehicle for connecting across generations and cultures, promoting social change and bringing people together. Very impressive work.”

“From the bottom of my heart, thank you so much for the experience you created for our students. Being the first time seeing this project, I imagined it being special, but I drastically underestimated just how special. Hearing the histories of such impactful individuals that you connected us with was humbling. You can truly sense the students thinking and seeing the world differently having met the residents of Timber Ridge. Thank you for helping make that happen.”

Contact Us:

Intergenerational Programming and Professional Development for Educators:

Jen Kulik, Ph.D. (she/her)

jen@silverkite.us

(360) 218-4884